

Master of Health Administration Course Requirements

Foundation Requirements

ACG 6027	Financial Accounting Concepts
MAR 6055	Marketing Functions & Processes

The courses above are waived for students who have already taken them or similar courses as part of their undergraduate program, subject to program approval.

Core Courses

GEB 6215	Graduate Business Communication Applications
HSA 6103	Introduction to Health Care Systems
HSA 6107	Organizational Behavior in Healthcare
HSA 6108	Planning and Marketing in Healthcare
HSA 6152	Health Policy
HSA 6175	Healthcare Finance
HSA 6425	Health Law
HSA 6707	Research Methods for Healthcare Management

Total 24 credits

Recommended Electives

Students are encouraged to select two additional courses (6 credits) from the list below. Students may petition the program director if they want to satisfy their elective requirements with courses other than these.

Health Administration

HSA 6937	Current Topics in Health Care Management
----------	--

Business

MAN 6156	Human Resources Management
MAN 6810	Entrepreneurial Skills for Managers
MAN 6875	Seminar in Entrepreneurship/Venture Management
QMB 6603	Data Analysis for Managers

Nursing

NGR 6190	Influencing Health Care Policy Through Nursing Systems
----------	--

Public Administration

PAD 6053	Introduction to Public Administration
PAD 6143	Public Policy and Non-Profit Organizations
PAD 6206	Resource Development and Capital Campaigns
PAD 6233	Seminar in Grants Writing

Social Work

SOW 6605	Advanced Health Practice and Policy
----------	-------------------------------------

Internship

Students who do not have sufficient prior work experience in healthcare are required to take GEB 6901 for 1 credit, in which they will perform an internship activity for about 15 hours per week during the semester. The internship will be approved by the instructor prior to registration. For complete details, see the University Catalog.